INDEX

TO VOLUME I.—NEW SERIES.

No. I. Review of the history of Hayti—Page 1. Progress of population—A secret worth knowing—Free or slave labor—Constitution of the free produce society of Pennsylvania—2. Maryland farming—Virginia do.—Colonization Society—Peruvian mining company—African slave trade—3. District of Columbia, No. VI.—A shocking fact—4. National Anniversary—5. Remarks on commencement of the volume—Noble deed—Ohio tobacco—Internal slave trade—Foreign and domestic news—Manufacturer's meeting—7. Anniversary of American Independence—Black beauty—Sorrows of Angola—Variety—Notices to Haytian emigrants—Terms of subscription—8.

No. II. Historical review, continued—Page 9. Slave representation by "W."—"Wilberforce"—10. Circular of Free Produce Society of Pennsylvania—Different races of men—11. District of Columbia No. VII.—Kidnapping—12. High-handed measures in Virginia—Maryland Anti-Slavery Convention—13. Crenshaw's slaves—Abolition of slavery in New York—Horrrors of slavery—Presidential election—14. Mild language—Foreign and domestic news.—Commemoration by the Africans—American Policy—15. American Forest girl—My native home—Yon setting sun—Variety—Notice—Terms—16.

No. III. Historical review, continued—17. Review of Dudley's reply to Amicus—18. 19. District of Columbia No. VIII.—20. Free population, rail road &c.—New Anti-Slavery societies—21. Conspiracy against the President of Hayti—H. Clay and Gen. Jackson—President Adams a non-slaveholder—22. Law in Cuba—Candidates for the State Legislature—Controversy in North Carolina—Notices—Foreign and Domestic news—23. Enigma—Wine vs. Poesy—Questions and answers—Solemn reflections—The Jew—The Butterfly—Variety—Notices—24.

No. IV. Historical review, continued—Page 25. "Philanthropos"—26. Cuba in 1827—Presbyterian movements—27. District of Columbia, No. IX—Pennsylvania Farmers—28. Youthful martyr—Important resolutions—W. H. Fitzhugh—F. Wright's establishment—29. Conspiracy in Hayti.—Gen. Jackson—30. Mayor's regulations—Kidnapping—Burning of a negro—Notices—Foreign and domestic news—31. Hymn—Lines on seeing a child kneeling at his mother's grave—Breathings of Spring—Epigrams, &c.—Proposals for African Repertory—Notices—32.

No. V. Historical review, continued—Page 33. Report on Slavery—34. European Colonies in America—recaptured Africans—35. District of Columbia No. X—36. Editorial notices—Nashoba—American Convention—"J"—37. Anti-Slavery Society in Washington—Crenshaw's slaves—notices—38. Black List—Foreign intelligence—39. Spells of home—Hebrew melody—Effects of sorrow—Variety—Notices—40.

No. VI. Historical review, continued—Page 41. Count Segur—42. Report on Slavery—43. District of Columbia No. XI.—Population—44. Progress of liberty—Production of Free Labor—Legal oppression—Buenos Ayres and Brazil—45. Address of the manumission society of Loudoun, Va.—46. Manumission societies—Domestic and foreign news—Notices—47. Indian's grave—Things that change—Falls of Niagara—Women in the patriarchal age—Notices—48.

No. VII. Historical review, continued—Page 49. Wilberforce—50. Autumn—Rhio—51. Caraway (N. C.) Address—Report on slavery, concluded—52. Emigration—53. F. Wright's establishment—New Emancipation Society at Winchester, Va.—Communication of a wayfaring man—54. Imperial barbarism—"Good society"—Humiliating picture—Assassins—Notices—55. Fourth of July The departed—Stanzas—The past———Variety—Notices—56.

No. VIII. Historical review, continued—Page 57. District of Columbia, by "F"—American Liberty trees, by "Justice"—58. "Sharpe"—"Concordia"—Santa Fee adventurers—Effect of Liberty—Equality—59. Granville Sharpe—Independence sermon—60. Anniversary—West Indies—Anti-Slavery societies—Buying and selling men and women—61. Contrast (Governor Kent's visit)—Notices—Population of America—Haytien Code Rural—62. Attack on Methodists in Jamaica—Mahogany—Notices—Prometheus delivered—Traveller at the source of the Nile—A lawyer's answer to a challenge—Musical prodigy—64.

No. IX. Historical review, continued—Page 65. Thomas Clarkson—"Observer"—66. Slave trade—Hayti—67. The ancient domain—Lonond epistle—68. Editorial notices—69. Prejudice vs. knowledge—Produce of Free labor—Presidential question—Notices—Rights of property, "F."—70. Black List—Notices.—71. Lament of a prisoner—wish realized—Variety—Notices.—72.

No. X. Historical review, continued, page 73. "W."—female philanthropy—74. 75. Kentucky sentiments, No. I.—76. African oratory—slave trade—77. Prospect before us—editorial notices—slave labor manufactures—age of revolutions—"J."—78. Deer Creek anti-slavery address—79. Ode to Independence Hall—hymn—lines to lady Byron—western states—sketches of Persia—notices—80.

No. XI. Historical review, continued, page 81. "Concordia,"—"R."—82. British female society—expense of life and money—83. Kentucky sentiments, No. II.—D. Raymond's address—84. Fifth of July—85. Editortal notices—almost white slaves—internal slave trade, &c.—death of Canning—86. Morgan—Hessians—important discovery—notices—87. Slave trade, a poem—slavery—freedom—Spain—notices—88.

No. XII. Historical review, continued, page 89. "Jay"—90. Moses—masonry—notice—91. Kentucky sentiments, No. III.—92. Female captives—Brougham's speech (extract)—liberty—intemperance—93. Editorial notice—hitting off an intruder—administration meeting—notices—Liberia—94. The horrible trade—treatment of females—notices—95. Greece—rich and poor man—questions and answers—epitaph—miseries of printers—prospectus of a pamphlet—96.

No. XIII. Historical review, continued, page 97. "Justice"—presidential election—98. Hayti—Florida—99. Kentucky sentiments, No. IV.—100. Baltimore election—a slavite in the field—101. Electioneering trick—candidates—American convention—good news from Virginia—letter from Liverpool—102 Nashoba proceedings—slaves at auction—letters of an English lady—John Sergeant—passing events—notices—103. Negro woman to her child—song of emigration—Genius of Niagara—prospectus—terms—104.

No. XIV. Historical review, continued, page 105. "Concordia"—106. A Kentuckian—Slavery, from the Richmond Family Visiter—107. President's address to the Manumission society of North Carolina—108. Kentucky sentiments, No. V.—109. Election in Baltimore—constitution of the Cherokees—Colonization Society—110. Hayti—foreign news—governor Penn—111. Trade of a poetess—negro boy's petition—woman—love like a bee—notices, &c. 112.

No. XV. Historical review, continued, page 113. "Philanthropos"—114. Slavery, continued—important decision—monsieur Value—115. Manufacturing by slave labor—116. Kentucky sentiments, No. VI.—117. Happiness of being flogged—Baltimore election—American convention—118. Notice—removal of slaves to Hayti—colonization society—obituary—119. America's address to the ocean—kindred hearts—notices, &c.—120.

No. XVI. Historical review, continued, page 121. "Z." "Friend of Man"—122. Trade to the East Indies—conscience—123. West India slavery—124. A pill for the editor of the New York Evening Post—Philadelphia election—Gov. Clinton of New York—horrid combat, (Jackson and Benton)—people of color—125. Notice—female philanthropy—Pennsylvania election—British corn laws—126. Ohio—foreign and domestic news—127. The thunder storm—love and worship—Lithunian poetry—albums—notices, &c.—128.

No. XVII. Historical review, continued, page 129. Elementary principles of the combination; 130. "Z."; West India slavery; law of N. York; 131. Africus, No. I.; Ohio, continued; 132. Montego bay; slaves in Mississippi; President's visit to Baltimore; 133. African slave trade; Missouri election; Virginia; New Jersey; notices; foreign and domestic news; cost of sugar; 134. Married man's reply; 135. To a young lady; to hope; last signers of the declaration of independence; Egypt's king; notices, &c.; 136.

No. XVIII. Historical review, continued; page 137, Notice; "Little William;" 138. "Justice;" colored persons in the west; 139. Africus, No II; West India slavery, continued; 140. slavery in Cuba; 141. Friends of N. Carolina; Manumission Society of North Carolina; outrages of stage drivers; slave trade; slave regulations in Washington; 142. Liberia; indigo, free labor; manufacture of bricks; notices; domestic and foreign news; 143. slave ship's fate; notices &c.; 144.

No XIX. Speech of D. Bryan; pages 145, 146, 147, 148. Pennsylvanians no slaveites; editorial notices; slave labor manufactures; Nashoba; letter to the editor; Citizen Granville; notice; similarity of American and Turkish doctrines; commerce of Cuba; 149. West Indian slavery; 150, 151. Pharaoh; Passaic; notices, &c.; 152.

No XX. Historical review, continued; page 153. "W;" "Z;" Colonization Society, 154. Mayland lands; borrowing; 155. United States' slave laws; 156, 157. Purchase of Cuba proposed; excellent reason; good humored rebuke; horrible outrage; District of Columbia; 158. Duff Green; female philanthropists; awful consequence; notices; domestic and foreign news; 159. Slave trade, a poem, continued; a wife to her husband in adversity; voice of winter; epigram; terms, &c.; 160.

No XXI. Historical review, continued; page 161. "Z;" population of the western country; 162. British views of slavery in the U. S. human life; 163. Masonic proceedings relative to slavery in Kentucky; Morgan committee; farming by colored people; Southern Review; 164. Constitutional amendment—schools in New York—revolutionary anecdote—obscenity and brutality—cost of slave hire—165. Lost river, Va.—Turks and Greeks—166. Mind your business—Consumption of groceries in England and France—Domestic and foreign news—167. Reply to the "voice of winter"—Slavery—Hymn to humanity—Hymn to the morning—Recollection of the West Indies—Terms, &c.—168.

No. XXII. Historical review, continued.—Page 169. Address of T. P. Jones, M. D.—170. 171. Sermon by R. Watson—172. Night scene on the Mississippi—Editorial remarks on T. P. Jones' address—173. Education of colored persons—cost of slavery—population of the western country, continued—174. Interior of a Printing Office—Anecdote of Dr. Franklin—Domestic and foreign news—175. Independence ode—Pity for Africans—The slattern—Visions of hope—Late repentance—Terms, &c.—176.

No. XXIII. Historical review, continued—Page 177. American propensity to glory—J. P. Brissot de Warville—178. 179. General views of the Abolition Society of Stark County, Ohio—180. Extracts of a sermon—Indiana—181. Removal of slaves to Hayti—Slaves with the Friends of N. C.—African Colonization—Important charge to a grand jury in New York—Improvement of Ohio—182. Number of negroes in Maryland—Congressional proceedings—Domestic and foreign news—183. Depths of the sea—The dream—Impromptu—Friendship—Cause and effect—Terms &c.—184.

No. XXIV. Historical review, con.—page 185. "Justitia"—J. P. Brissot de Warville, continued—186. Sleep—187. Gregoire's inquiry—188. Maryland, concluded—slave trade—botanical emblems—189. Southern policy—Franklin Institute of Pennsylvania—removal of slaves to Hayti—beautiful extract—Russian fanaticism—importance of types—domestic and foreign news—191. Extract from Baily's poem—watch and pray—sealing an oath—fashion's home—terms, &c.—192.

No. XXV. Historical review, con.—page 193. "W"—minutes of the manumission society of Tennessee—194. Africus, No. III.—imprisonment of a missionary—free labor contrasted with slave labor—number of slaves in the West Indies—Liberia—195. Gregoire's inquiry, continued—J. P. Brissot de Warville—196. Notice—more anti-slavery societies—criminal law in Virginia—197. War in Europe—extracts from the message of the president of the U. S.—non-consumption agreement—sickness at Port au Prince—African colony—congressional proceedings—young men's bible society—198. Notices—foreign and domestic news—removal of slaves to Hayti—199. Address to the first slave ship—cloud of witnesses and pilgrim's prayer—the meeting—to a land tortoise—lament on the death of a child—freedom—terms, &c.—200.

No. XXVI. Historical review, continued—201. J. P. Brissot de Warville, concluded—202. Notice—the slave holding combination—carters' and draymen's petition—203. English correspondence—Ladies' association in Liverpool—extracts from the president's message, concluded.